
NO EXTRA SESSION; SHIP MEASURE DEAD

Bill to Buy Vessels to Sleep in Conference While the Senate Works to Pass the Supply Measures.

Washington, February 18.—Blocked in their efforts to get a vote on the house ship-purchase bill, democratic senators today agreed to take up appropriation bills and sent the ship-purchase measure to conference until February 27, when it must take its chance of being filibustered to its death on March 4.

Republican senators entered into a gentlemen's agreement with democratic leaders to let the bill go to conference on condition that appropriation measures be passed within the next ten days to avoid an extra session. The democrats, it was reported, agreed to a reasonable cut in the river and harbor bill and the republicans, in turn, gave assurances that they would not filibuster against any appropriation measure. Democrats further agreed that when the ship-purchase bill comes out of conference, if any agreement on it ever is reached, the republicans will be given an opportunity to renew their fight against it. The compact which broke the long struggle was reached late in the day. Administration leaders maintained that it was the best they could hope for and republican senators insisted that the action meant the bill was dead but seemed to agree there would be no extra session.

When the time came to put the agreement into operation, the democrats and other senators opposed sending the bill to conference. They (it) votes could be had on their amendment. The democrats, however, and many roll calls, and all amendments were voted down.

Senator Bankhead started the trouble by an amendment to provide that government ships be admitted to coastwise shipping. This amendment was voted down. The ship-purchase bill was then sent to conference. The democrats, however, and many roll calls, and all amendments were voted down. who started the movement in the board to give more police protection to the residential sections of the city, and it was his suggestion that the city be assigned to the fire stations for the purpose of checking robbery. Commissioner King believed that the men who were doing "vice squad" duty around the center of the city should be put in uniform and assigned with the regular patrolmen to patrol the outlying belt.

"It was my understanding," said Commissioner King Thursday, "that the board ordered the chief to put the men in uniform. As a matter of fact, I believe that every other member of the board has the same impression. I have spoken to several members, including Chairman Paine and Mayor Woodward, and they understood the order to mean that the men were to be put on patrol duty."

Commissioner King says that he will be one member of the board to support a movement to give the chief definite written orders at the next meeting.

Councilman Johnson showed his displeasure because of the attitude of Chief Beavers following the telephone conversation. He declared that he will not sign the vouchers and indicated that because of the fact that Chief Beavers has not arranged his payroll in accordance with the intent of the finance committee, the payroll for the entire department might be held up.

Special Board Session.
The police board will be called to meet in a special session by Mayor Woodward in the event members ask for a special meeting. The mayor says that the finance committee and the police board have the right to demand that the chief carry out instructions as to the finance of the department. "There is entirely too much of this business of heads of departments and city board spending the people's money just to satisfy a whim or a fad," said the mayor. "If it takes a year to be allowed to run in that fashion we might as well abolish the finance committee, and let the heads of departments take over the city's money and spend it all to suit themselves."

DR. CHAPMAN ASKS, "IS THERE A HELL?"

At Close of Eloquent Sermon He Tells Audience to Pass Out in Silence, Go Home, and Think.

PROGRAM TOMORROW.
Meetings are held at the Tabernacle, Peachtree street, above Ellis, each afternoon, excepting Monday and Saturday, and each evening, excepting Saturday. Doors open one-half hour earlier. Dr. Chapman will preach at all services, and Mr. Alexander will lead the choir singing. Dr. Chapman's sermon topics for the remainder of the week follow: Friday, 3 p. m.—Special address to "The Mothers of Atlanta." 7:30 p. m.—"Sowing and Reaping."

No services on Saturday. The constitution will give daily reports of the Chapman-Alexander revival and will be sent by mail, postpaid, from now till its close, five weeks hence, Daily, 50 cents; Daily and Sunday, 40 cents, delivered by carrier in Atlanta at 12 cents per week.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman preached a wonderful sermon Thursday evening to a capacity audience at the revival building on Peachtree. His subject was, "Is There a Hell?"

The sermon was not wonderful because he attempted to answer this question, that is so fraught with eternal interest, but because he left an awful doubt in the minds of his hearers and then, at the close of his discourse, he suddenly exclaimed:

"Now go home and think. There will be no more sermons, so close out, all of you, in silence and go home and think."

And the vast audience passed out in absolute silence.

The sermon might be called enigmatical. For instance, he stated at one time:

"I don't believe there is a single lost

KIDNEY TROUBLE FROM OVERWORK

"I am a blacksmith by trade and would work hard and suffer with my kidneys. I suffered for many years and was treated by a Waynesboro, Va., doctor. He said I was suffering from kidney trouble in its worst form and that he could hardly do a day's work, and was willing to try anything that would do me good. I was told to get a bottle of Dr. Kilmier's Swamp-Root and in a few days I am all right. I feel today that I am a well man and would say to all who suffer with their kidneys, 'Take Dr. Kilmier's Swamp-Root. It has done more for me than all the doctors, and saved my life.'"

I can further say that about two years ago my son was sick in bed and was taking medicine from doctors and got worse all the time. I went in at night and got a bottle of Swamp-Root and told him to lay aside all the doctor's medicines and take Swamp-Root. He took six bottles and I am glad to say that he is well today and has not had any trouble with his kidneys since. It was Swamp-Root that cured him. My son now thinks that there is no medicine that a doctor can give that will cure him. With Dr. Kilmier's Swamp-Root.

Very truly yours,
G. W. HARDING,
Covington, Va.

Personally appeared before me this 8th day of March, 1915, G. W. Harding, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that same is true in substance and in fact.

Given under my hand this 8th day of March, 1915.

man in hell yet—mark me, I say not yet."

That remark was not explained.

It was one thing that the people had to go home and think about.

Perhaps if you read his sermon, which is given in full, it may help you to understand the matter better.

"Is There a Hell?"

Dr. Chapman talked on this question at the revival Thursday evening—a question, he said, that has much to do with eternity as has any of God's great plans. His first utterance was the love of God, but I will stand some day at the judgment seat and must answer for any failure to do my duty, and one is to warn of eternal damnation as well as to teach of eternal blessedness.

His text was: "If one went to them from the dead they will repent."

The invocation was by Dr. J. L. White, of the Baptist Tabernacle.

Dr. Chapman, just before the reading of the scripture lesson, asked the entire congregation to arise and sing.

"How Firm a Foundation Ye Saints of the Lord," and more than five thousand voices were lifted up in the grand old anthem.

He read out a list of requests for special progress. A mother asked that God would be petitioned to save her son from a drunkard's grave. Fathers and mothers asked prayers for children, and many wanted prayers for relatives and friends. It was stated that the prayers that had been offered up for Rev. G. W. Lewis had been answered and he was very much better.

Some of His Striking Remarks.

Some of Dr. Chapman's striking utterances were:

"All the music that could be pressed out of heaven, the shophere heard, 'Peace and Good Will on Earth to Men.'"

There are two classes of parables in the scriptures. First, those of prediction; second, those that illustrate some great moral question.

It was once the belief that God made rich those whom he wished to bless. Under the new dispensation we know that poverty may be a savior.

"The only question for men is, What Did You Do With Jesus?"

If a man knew what hell really was he would faint if he only thought of it.

"If a man could realize all the misery of hell he could stand it five seconds."

"All we can imagine of the worst hell the human mind can picture is only a hint."

"If there is one place more than another where a man can find hell on earth it is the place where a young man can find drink."

"In Christ's parables of the wicked no names are given. Why? Because we read in prophecy, 'The name of the wicked shall rot.'"

"We may think if we give way to riches and the lusts of the flesh that you shall find time for happiness. You will feel the thrill of life."

"I don't believe there is a single lost man in hell yet, not yet."

"I have never been in a city that has gripped me more than Atlanta with its beautiful home as seen from the outside, but your people are not taking hold of the cross of Christ as they should."

"As Sam Jones said, Dives was not torn away—he repented himself."

"You will go to hell if you stand on the devil's platform."

"The devil's platform is the open saloon, the brothel and the man who frequents it."

"The man who stands on the devil's platform is he who, despite God's love and mercy, says, 'I will not believe.'"

"If you ever get into hell it will be over the Bible, over God's love, over your mother's prayers, over your preacher's pleadings."

"If there is anything that could make the angels weep it is to see a young girl drunk."

Nobody Looked Around.

In the midst of his discourse, a woman in the audience fainted, for Dr. Chapman paused and called out:

"Look at me! keep your eye on me! I am the man who will be taken care of. Wait, wait, keep your eyes on me! Let a few others come down the aisle."

No one looked around, not even newspaper reporter, and just exactly

A New Day on the Calendar

Having Gathered the Most Charming Collection of Silk Dresses That We Can Recall, and at Prices So Evidently Moderate, We Have Planned That

Today Is Silk Frock Day

What a really good time is in store for the women of Atlanta about to select their new frocks!

We've things to show them, wonderfully new, smart and distinguished frocks that clearly and truly bring into reality the style points of a new, a decidedly fashion-new season.

Today is Silk Frock Day.

We are doing something we have never done before—setting apart a day at the forefront of the season for the special display of the Silk Frock.

No other way to do such a collection full justice. No other way to do the women of Atlanta justice—for surely it is their right to see, to study, to select, when we have more than in any spring season for them to see and study and select.

The Display Calls for Emphasis in Two Ways--The Styles Are Faultless, the Prices Are Surprisingly Low

That the former of these features should not suffer because of the latter has required some skillful and hard work.

But that is done!

And this is your invitation to the most elegant affair of its kind that Atlanta has known.

At $14.75 A dress of silk crepe poplin, developed in sand, soft green and Belgian blue. The skirt is in long lines and plain—plaited into the waist line—a velvet girdle and a plaited ruching.

At $17.95 A dress of pussy willow taffeta in the soft shades that are so favored. A blousy sort of bodice with bishop's sleeves, the plain skirt falls from a corded yoke; suede belt.

At $19.50 A dress of crepe de chine that emphasizes the new plain bodice and choker effect—fastening on the side. The skirt is shirred over the hips, finished with military cords. In sand and putty shades.

At $21.75 A dress of heavy charmeuse in sand, putty, gray, navy and Belgian blue. The waist emphasizes the smart coat effect, touched with embroidery, sleeves of Georgette crepe; the skirt has its plaits at the side caught in with straps and buttons. A five-inch cuff at bottom.

Style Features
Taffeta dresses have Georgette crepe sleeves. Crepe de chine and crepe meter dresses have blouses of Georgette crepe in the same shade. There are little coat and peasant jacket effects. There are many dresses showing gold and silver run trimmings. New cord shirring and braids (at the waist line) are frequent. Skirts are wide—the waist line is a decidedly variable point. Colors are glorious this spring—navy and Belgian blue, Joffe blue, Rocky Mountain blue, Palm Beach sand, putty, Nevada silver, Gettysburg gray, a new rose. We are listing a dress or so at the several prices that dominate the display. They are intended merely to point the way. Where one is mentioned a dozen styles are omitted.

At $25.00 A dress of crepe meter has a blouse that opens at the neck over a soft fold of net, the long sleeves are of Georgette crepe, a broad, embroidered belt falling over the waist line gives a coat-like look. The full skirt is on a deep corded and shirred yoke. This may be had in several favored shades.

And this is but one at this price; there are many.

Evening Dresses in the Little Blue Room

A Display in Itself Worthy of First Importance
Could we forget their dainty beauty, we might tell you much about how inexpensive they are—could we forget how inexpensive they are, we might say much of their quaint charm of fashioning, of color, of materials—taffetas, Gros de Londres, laces and nets. You will be impressed immediately by the striking style changes shown in these silky, lace affairs—more notable, perhaps, than in the street dresses—for here the widened skirt, the raised waist line, are in great evidence.
At $15.00 A taffeta dress of pale blue has border trimmings and straps over shoulders of black velvet, the wide skirt is shirred to a soft chiffon yoke.
At $15.00 An embroidered net dress of strikingly pretty pattern, fashioned in a triple flounce—blouse and short sleeves of lace—a broad girdle and big bow at back. In delicate shades.
At $19.75 A concoction of net—the skirt is in three ruffles that stand out rather abruptly, each ruffle is bound with satin to correspond with the color of the broad girdle, which may be pink, blue or maize.
At $25.00 A dress of the 1830 Pompadour silks, with the charming high waist line effect of those days. At belt and around shoulders are little knots of flowers.

White Country Club Coats Are Specially Priced

$7.75---Were $9.75 and $11.75
$9.75---Were $12.50
Those now $7.75 are of a heavy-looking but rather light in weight basket weave fabric, showing an irregular plaid marked by black and green lines.
Those now $9.75 are soft white chin-chillas.
They are smart coats in lines, with flaring skirts, some having the new and small yoke in the back, belted and plain, big patch pockets.

Jake Abel to Fight Frank Whitney Here Feb. 24

EDITED BY DICK JEMISON.

STATE LEAGUE MEETS TODAY AT THOMASVILLE

Thomasville, Ga., February 18.—(Special.)—President Dick Jemison, of the Georgia State League, arrived here Thursday afternoon for the meeting of the directors of the league. The object of the meeting is to ratify the schedule for the coming season, and to attend to whatever business that may come up.

However, the main reason for the meeting is to discuss the salary limit. An attempt to raise the limit to $500 will be made. The present limit is only $375, and so much dissatisfaction has been manifested over this that the league is expected to raise it to $500.

Whitney and Abel, while waiting here before a number of games, have been held rivals for some time.

Whitney threatened to go to Chattanooga and fight Abel in his own town when Abelson asked him to fight here. Whitney, who is a former champion, wanted the best stage on Tuesday night, but Abelson held out for Thursday.

Abel, however, is a regular regular. They clashed in a hot ten-round bout about a year ago, but both have claimed victory on that occasion.

Jake Abel and Frank Whitney Matched for Next Thursday

Jake Abel, one of the most popular boxers in this section of the country, will be Frank Whitney's opponent at the Bijou theater next Thursday night instead of Frankie Howard.

Promoter Mike Saul, closed the match yesterday. Max Abelson, Abel's brother, closed for Abel, while Whitney signed for himself.

Abel, however, is a regular regular. They clashed in a hot ten-round bout about a year ago, but both have claimed victory on that occasion.

Next Thursday night they will have a chance to settle the question of supremacy once and for all time. It should be a corking battle, one worth going miles to see.

Whitney and Abel have already agreed to have the three newspaper men award the decision. Saul will handle the men in the ring. The new arrangement of handing down the verdict protects both men in case of a draw.

Abel has been doing light work for the last two weeks in anticipation of returning to the ring. He will continue hard work until the day of the match. White fought Whitney here and knows just what he is getting. Whitney is training at the Metropolitan club. He will work with Eddie Hamilton and Battling Budd. Both boys are promised to be in great shape for the fray, and promoter Saul could not have brought two more popular and evenly matched boys here.

LOCALS DETERMINED TO DOWN COLUMBUS

Both Teams Are in Good Shape for Championship Struggle Saturday.

Atlanta is very confident of taking Saturday night's game from the Columbus Y. M. C. A. aggregation, and thereby win the southern basketball championship, and so confident are the club members that they are waging equal money on the local boys to win the game.

Atlanta will take their final workout tonight, only a light practice being indulged in as Coach Joe Bean does not wish to have his men overtrained for the match.

Columbus is training faithfully and hard for the struggle and will enter the game in the height of form. Their defeat at the hands of Georgia, which suffered last Monday night, may have served as a notice to make them win this game. Columbus said they will put up a stiff argument for the championship.

Atlanta and Columbus are easily the two best basketball outfits in the south. Both have lost one contest, while the local team won two. Columbus has about the same number of wins as Atlanta.

Georgia, the only outfit that could claim the title, has been defeated several times, losing to teams that are in the hands of Columbus. They have been defeated, therefore, can hardly claim the title.

A date was offered them by the local team, but this was refused. No reason was given for this, and just why they refused is not known.

The two games will start promptly at 8:30 and the regular weekly date will follow.

The way the two teams will line up is:

Atlanta	Position	Columbus
Forbes	P.	R. P. Paddy Struppa
Dillard	G.	J. J. Kilcrease
Weaver	F.	R. G. Newman

PREP BASKETBALL.

TODAY'S GAMES.
G. M. A. at Boys' High.
Peacock at Donald Fraser.

The semi-final round of prep basketball games will be played, the above two games being on tap. The local league winds up the 1915 season next Tuesday when Boys' High and Marietta will play for the championship.

The two games today, will start promptly at 4 o'clock. The G. M. A. and Boys' High play on the Wesley Memorial court, while Peacock plays Donald Fraser recently on the Peacock court, and the Decatur boys are doubly anxious to annex this game and thereby even up the count for the season.
